Bill Ray introduced Lee County High School football coach Burton Cates for a program that might have been entitled 'O, for the lack of eleven points'. Coach Cates began his talk by stating the Yellow Jackets were eleven points away from being undefeated in the conference. The coach described several very close loses for the Yellow Jackets, one of which included a forty-seven-foot field goal kick by the opposition at the very end of the game. Coach Cates had high praise for the team members and the way they care for each other. Several San-Lee Sunrise Rotarians gave testimonials for the team, how sports had impacted their lives and their hope for the future of the Yellow Jackets.
