

SUNRISE SALUTE

Rotary International Charter No. 30735 – Chartered May 1, 1995 – Rotary District 7690

News from the the Rotary Meeting of November 9, 2009

2009-10 RI Theme

Leading the Way At San—Lee

President Neal Jensen, opened the meeting with the 'Quote of the Week: "Tell me and I'll forget; show me and I may remember; involve me and I'll understand." - Chinese proverb.

Charles Oldham led the Rotary invocation.

Martin Davis led the Pledge of Allegiance.

President Jensen led the membership in a moment of silence in memory of San-Lee Sunriser Pete Straka, and Matt Garrett concluded the remembrance with a prayer.

President Neal Jensen led the Four Way Test to close the meeting.

San-Lee Sunrise Rotarian Leslie Cox (left) introduced Zac West (center), Branch Director for the Lee County YMCA, for a program describing the history and future of the YMCA with emphasis on the new 12,000 sq. ft. Lee County YMCA Wellness Center located in the Spring Lane Galleria Shopping Center, 860 Spring Lane, Sanford, a place to work out and play hard. Also pictured is San-Lee Sunrise Rotary President Neal Jensen.

Leslie Cox introduced Zac West, Branch Director for the Lee County YMCA, for a program describing the history and future of the YMCA in Lee County with emphasis on the new 12,000 sq. ft. Lee County YMCA Wellness Center located in the Spring Lane Galleria Shopping Center, 860 Spring Lane, Sanford, a place to work out and play hard. The Lee County YMCA was established in 1996 and has served more than 20,000 children in Lee County. Long-term plans call for the YMCA to expand on a 30-acre tract of land owned by the YMCA on Burns Drive. The new Wellness Center will offer youth programs for tots to teens with options for all ages. Child care is available. There is a 50% discount off the enrollment fee through December 31, 2009. For more information, call 777-YMCA (9622) or access www.YMCATriangle.org.

Good News

- Ashley Hinman announced that the opening of the new Carolina Trace Country Club is proceeding apace, but Martin Davis announced there will be no Dixie Rotary Bowl this year.
- Terry Mullen shared his past week of entertainment he enjoyed with his daughter beginning with a Leonard Cohen concert, moving on with a Heart of Carolina Jazz concert, and concluding with a drama presentation of 'South Pacific'.
- In the San-Lee sports report, Leslie Cox is proud of the Yankees and NC State's win over Maryland,
- Hubert Garner touts Clemson over Florida State.
- Ed Mishler praised the Purdue Boilermakers over Michigan.
- Paul Dauphin says the Oregon Ducks beat somebody.
- Neal Jenson's daughter and grandson recently had a birthday, and this was two days before Neal's birthday.
- Noland Williams has a new grandson, 7 lbs., 10 oz.
- Hayden Lutterloh announced the christening of a new naval ship the USN New York which contains seven and one half tons of steel from the New York Trade Center.
- Hubert Garner praised the citizens of Lee County for a 'yes' vote on the education sales tax.
- Leslie Cox announced he took his six-year-old grandson to dinner at a five-star restaurant in Raleigh.

Club News

- There will be no morning meeting for San-Lee Rotary next Monday, Nov. 16th, and instead the San-Lee Sunrise Rotary Raffle party will be held at the Flame Restaurant starting at six o'clock p.m. with heavy hors d'oeuvres.

Community News

- Kevin Kirkman announced Cub Scout Pack 942 will have a pancake supper at St. Luke Methodist Church on Hwy. 42 from 5 p.m. to 7 p.m., November 20th. Tickets are $5.00 at the door.