Kevin Kirkman introduced Captain Kent Everett, Chief Jailor for the Lee County Sheriff's Department, for a program describing how the Lee County Sheriff's Department provides safe, humane, and efficient incarceration for offending citizens in our area. Captain Everett described how he and a staff of twenty-six maintain a jail facility with a 126-inmate capacity of males, females, and juveniles on a 24-hour-a-day, 7-days-a-week schedule. The inmates, eighty-five percent repeat offenders, must have all medical, dental, mental health, and daily living needs met. All the inmates must be held separately according to age, sex, severity of offense, whether or not they are co-defendants, or are in different gangs.
