Nolan Williams introduced the speaker, Janice Holmes of the Lee County Enrichment Center. Janice is the volunteer services coordinator, organizes trips and runs the Senior Health Insurance Information program at the Enrichment Center. Janice described the wide variety of programs at the Enrichment Center. These programs include the Extra Help program which provides additional funds for prescription drugs for seniors with low incomes and the Senior Health Insurance Information program which provides trained experts who answer questions about the options for the various Medicare programs. The center also provides many opportunities for exercise including aerobics classes, yoga line dancing and a well equipped fitness facility. The Lee County Veterans Service Office headed by John O. Sandrock and the COLTS transportation program are also located at the Enrichment Center.
