San-Lee Sunrise Rotary President Marcy Santini introduced Past President Neal Jensen for a program celebrating Neal and wife Molly's trip to Montreal, Canada in the province of Quebec for the 2010 Rotary International Convention in a city where Joie de Vivre, the 'Joy of Living', is in one of the world's most livable cities.

President Santini introduced Neal Jensen for a program celebrating Neal and wife Molly's trip to Montreal for the 2010 Rotary International Convention. There were 18,000 registered participants for the largest conference ever held in Montreal. Five thousand of the 33, 976 Rotary Clubs worldwide sent representatives for the conference. John Kenny turned over the leadership of RI to Ray Klinginsmith for 2010-2011 and Kaylan Banerjee was installed as President Elect for 2011-2012. Keynote speakers at the conference included Queen Noor of Jordan who received the RI Award of Honor for her work in promoting world peace and Dolly Parton representing the Dollywood Foundation and the Dolly Parton's Imagination Library. Marie Ahoua from Ivory Coast spoke using a soccer ball as a symbol of kicking polio out of Africa. It was reported at the conference that there have been no new cases of polio in India for six months and a 99% drop in new cases in Nigeria.

Some of the entertainment at the Conference included a group called Celtic Thunder. The next RI conference will be held in New Orleans, May 21-25, 2011.
